Manuscripts

- Son, J. and Moon, H. (2026+). Localized Conformal Risk Control. under review. [link]
  - Extended localized conformal prediction to bounded monotone losses with candidate-completed and candidate-free envelope procedures, both providing finite-sample marginal risk control and asymptotic conditional exactness under suitable assumptions
  - Conducted experiments on two real-world tasks—rare-disease-causing gene prioritization and protein-family retrieval—demonstrating that domain-specific localizers yielded substantially smaller prediction sets than benchmark methods while achieving the target risk level
